ETHNIC STUDIES SUMMIT

Moving Beyond the Horizon

Thursday, August 29, 2024

8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. • Riverside Convention Center
3637 5th Street • Riverside, CA 92501

The Ethnic Studies Summit is the first event in a series of seven offerings by the Riverside County Office of Education during the 2024-2025 school year. This event is intended to provide support for Riverside County local educational agencies (LEAs) efforts to develop high school ethnic studies courses. This summit will feature workshops by experts in their respective fields who will focus on the academic and pedagogical aspects of course development, the interdisciplinary features of ethnic studies, conceptual aspects of ethnic studies, and applied student learning activities within community-based, STEAM-based, and entrepreneurial-based educational models.

Audience: Local educational agencies (LEA) ethnic studies leads, district officials, teachers, and school site administrators involved in the development of ethnic studies courses to meet the California Assembly Bill 101 Initial Pilot course requirement (2025-2026 school year), and the ensuing high school graduation requirement (2029-2030 school year) are encouraged to attend this event.

Registration Deadline: Thursday, August 15, 2024
