

EASTSIDE STORIES: THE INLAND EMPIRE & US HISTORY

COTTAGE 4-6PM

OCTOBER 14
NOVEMBER 4
JANUARY 20
FEBRUARY 17
MARCH 10

ZOOM

UCLA history geography project

TPS TEACHING WITH PRIMARY SOURCES
LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

K-12 US & Ethnic Studies Teachers Free

The Riverside County Office of Education and the UCLA History-Geography Project are proud to announce a new Teaching with Primary Sources workshop, Eastside Stories: The Inland Empire & US History. Eastside Stories focuses on the rich and unique local history of the Inland Empire. Each session will feature a talk from a historian which will be supplemented by a model lesson by our teacher leaders. Eastside Stories is free and open to all interested K-12 and Ethnic Studies teachers who emphasize local and U.S. history in their classrooms. All participants will receive stipends for creating lessons and books on some of the topics we explore.

October 14, 2021: Indigenous Communities and History. Michelle Lorimer, Cal State San Bernardino

November 4, 2021: The Citrus Belt, Industrialization, and Immigration. Steven Moreno-Terrill

January 20, 2022: Asian American and Pacific Islander Experiences in the Inland Empire. Megan Asaka, UC Riverside

February 17, 2022: Mexican American and Latinx Civil Rights in the Inland Empire. Mark Ocegueda, Brown University

March 10, 2022: The Eastside Sound: Music and Culture as acts of Resistance in the Inland Empire. Matt Garcia, Dartmouth University

All sessions are virtual on Zoom from 4-6pm. Register at tinyurl.com/eastsidestories