

Poetry and Ethnic Studies

Please join Louisa Higgins, Arts Administrator, and Don Powell, History/Social Studies Administrator, as they present a brief overview of how poetry (and other art forms) can be used to teach Ethnic Studies. They will be working with “Mending Wall” by Robert Frost and “The Border” by Alberto Rios. Participants in the presentation will be given the slides for use in their classrooms following the presentation.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2021
