ETHNIC STUDIES SUMMIT

Moving Beyond the Horizon

Thursday, November 7, 2024

8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. • Riverside Convention Center
3637 5th Street • Riverside, CA 92501

The Ethnic Studies Summit #2, "From Purpose to Content," is intended to explore the process school districts undertake when involved in the development of AB 101 ethnic studies courses. This summit will include moderated discussions between the hosts and panel members comprised of high school teachers, principals, and district officials. These conversations will focus on panelist members' unique triumphs, challenges, and perspectives regarding building support for ethnic studies.

Audience: Local educational agencies (LEA) ethnic studies leads, school district teachers and school site administrators involved in the development of stand-alone ethnic studies courses to meet the California Assembly Bill 101 Initial Pilot course requirement (2025–2026 school year), and the ensuing high school graduation requirement (2029–2030 school year) are encouraged to attend this event.

Registration Deadline: Thursday, October 31, 2024
