

INSTRUCTION

SUBJECT: Curriculum

Curriculum developed by the certificated staff shall be guided by such factors as the following:

1. Actual studies and information concerning the needs of the students.
2. The range, abilities, aptitudes, and interests of students.
3. Aspirations of residents of the county for students served in County-operated programs.
4. The mobility of population.
5. Avoidance of material which may be discriminatory in nature.

Opportunities for faculty to participate and provide input in curriculum development through workshops, study groups, and assistance from outside consultants is encouraged.
